A Band Fair

At the practice meeting of the Morrisville Military Band last evening it was voted to hold a band fair, the dates arranged upon for the event being December 12 to 16, inclusive. A committee composed of C. B. Greene, Don A. Sanders, J. M. Kelley, A. N. Camp, C. H. A. Stafford, G. A. Wilkins and D. L. Sanders, the last three being the regular village committee, were appointed to make all arrangements. The object of the fair is to secure new instruments for the band, as the ones now being used are entirely inadequate for the needs of a first-class organization, which the members intend to make the present band. The plan for the fair is outlined, while a big undertaking, is a progressive one and as several of the "live ones" have hold of the enterprise, it is bound to be successful. The fair will be given at town hall on every evening of the above dates, the attractions being varied including a band concert and dancing until 12 o'clock each night. A feature will be the drawing of prizes each night. It is proposed to put up 100 valuable articles, one-fifth of the number to be drawn each night, giving every ticket holder one chance in the contest each night. It is also a part of the plan to sell 1000 season tickets to the fair at $1 each, which will entitle the holder to one drawing each night. Single admission tickets will be 25 cents each.

The idea is meeting with universal approval among the business men and everybody thus far who has been "touched" has responded beautifully.

Masons Visit the Phoenix

Last evening a delegation of Masons from Johnson came up here and spent the evening with Mine Host Robbins of the Phoenix. Besides the Johnson delegation there were several others present, making a party of about fifty. They owned the house and had a most enjoyable time in visiting, singing, &c. At 11 o'clock a banquet was served, and a fine feast it was. The tables were very prettily arranged and loaded with the delicacies of the season. The company were waited on in the best of shape and all greatly enjoyed the spread. This was followed by an hour in "smoke talk" and about midnight all departed, allowing that Gus was "a jolly good fellow" and Mrs. Robbins just the right kind of a woman for a landlord's wife. All hands connected with the Phoenix did everything in their power to make the affair an enjoyable one and all who were present will long remember the happy event. Representatives were present from the following lodges: Waterman of Johnson, Mt. Vernon of Morrisville, Mineral of Wolcott, Mt. Norris of Eden, Granite of Barre, Warner of Cambridge and Winoski of Waterbury.

Recent Deaths in Hyde Park

RICHARD GIBSON.
Richard Gibson, aged 81 years, died at the home of his son, Richard, Jr., at Centerville, on Wednesday of last week. He was born in Berwick, England, October 22, 1824, and came to this country in 1852, locating in New York, where he resided until 1876, when he located in Hyde Park. He was the last and youngest of a family of eight children. Three children survive him: Fanny, the wife of J. C. Towle of Amsterdam, N. Y.; Richard of Hyde Park and Mary A., wife of J. L. Towle of Morrisville. There were six other children, but they died in infancy. Mr. Gibson was a man of sterling character and one who was held in high regard by those who knew him. For many years he was an active Odd Fellow, but of late years, owing to poor health, had not given the Order much attention. The funeral was held on Friday last. Rev. Gregory of North Hyde Park officiating. The burial was in the Holbrook cemetery.

HARRISON GROUT.
Harrison Grout, whose illness we noted last week, died last Friday afternoon. He had been in ill-health for about two months and confined to the bed some three weeks. Death was due to old age; his age was 78 years and nine months. Harrison Grout was born in Cambridge in 1826 and was a son of Bridgeman Grout and Huldah Powell. He located in Hyde Park in 1853 and in 1862 married Hannah Allen of this town, who died about fifteen years ago. He was a farmer, also worked considerably at carpentering. For many years he lived in this village and was for a long time the liquor agent for this town. After the death of his wife his sister-in-law kept house for him, but she dying last year left him alone. He took up his residence with his nephew, Chas. Bliss, where he has since lived. Mr. Grout is the last of his family. He leaves two nieces and two nephews, Mrs. Chas. Shaw of Morrisville, Chas. Bliss, and a niece and nephew in Massachusetts. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. Otto Raspe of Morrisville was the official clergyman and the burial was in the cemetery at this village. Edgar Pratt had charge of the funeral.
